WONDERFUL START-OFFERS FLOW IN

Many thanks to everyone who has helped to make the launch of the Centenary Fund such a brilliant start. The Ploughman's Lunches have gone very well and it's still not too late to join in the fun and organize your own. The Quiz night was packed out with all tickets sold with everyone enjoying a great night at The Junction, in Broadstone. Time to start thinking of buying tickets for the Auction Of Promises on 29th Jan 2011, and to look out for some of the superb offers that have flowed in since the launch. If you are looking for accommodation abroad, owning a beach hut for a week or some exciting days out for the kids look no further. For the adventurous there are offers of wind surfing, scuba diving training and a week in the gym. For those seeking relaxation a three course dinner, champagne boat trip, a night at the theatre and the chance to bid for a case of wine and much more..... Let's make this a night to remember, book your tickets and table now.
